Mr. McRae:

On behalf of the Atlanta Host Committee, the Board of Directors, and the staff of the International Economic Development Council (IEDC), I want to express our sincere appreciation for your sponsorship of our 2008 Annual Conference in October.

IEDC is the only non-profit, international association dedicated to helping economic development professionals build strong, sustainable communities. With over 4,500 members worldwide, it is IEDC's mission to provide economic developers with extensive information, assistance and educational resources. Conducting educational conferences, professional training, and certification are just some of the services IEDC offers to meet the needs of our members. Above all, the support of our sponsors is crucial to the ability of IEDC to continue to deliver this advanced level of service to our growing membership, including producing high-quality conferences.

Thank you again for your generous contribution to IEDC, and we hope you will consider taking advantage of future sponsorship opportunities. We look forward to continuing a relationship between our two organizations. Please let me know if I can be of any assistance.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey A. Finkle
President & CEO
